

Halton – Newham Comparison

Population (2010-14)

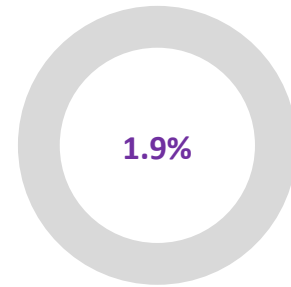

Increased by 1.2%
(Newham:8.4%)

Young Person Population (2010-14)

Both Halton and Newham
have seen a reduction in the 18-24 population.

Unemployment Rate (2015)

Halton's Unemployment Rate is lower than Newham (2.1%)

Business Deaths (2009-14)

The number of business deaths in Halton has decreased by 16% since 2009.
(Newham: Increased by 23%)

Business Survival Rate (1 year from 2013)

Both Halton and Newham
have the same Business
Survival Rate (After 1 year)

Business Survival Rate (5 years from 2009)

Higher than the Newham
Survival Rate of 35%

Council Tax Band A Properties

47% of Halton's properties fall into Council Tax Band 'A'

Average Earnings (Workplace)

Slightly less than the Average
Earnings in Newham (£553)

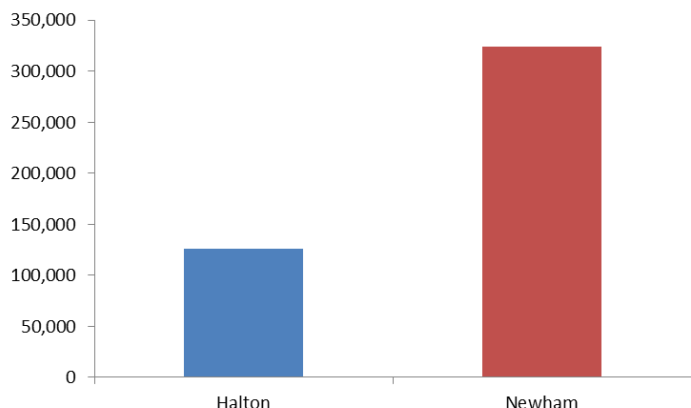

Adult with no formal Qualifications (2014)

Halton (10%) has slightly less adults with no formal qualifications than Newham
(11%)

Halton Compared to Newham

2014 Population Estimates

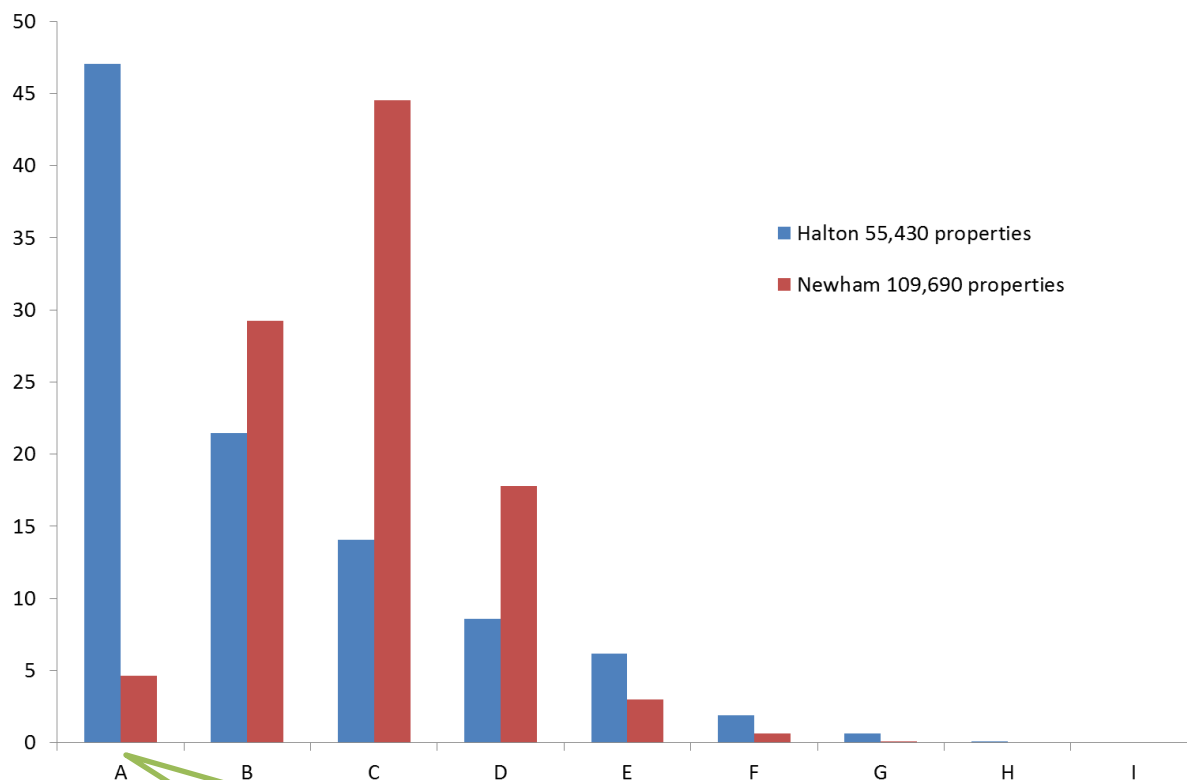

2016/17 Spend Per Head

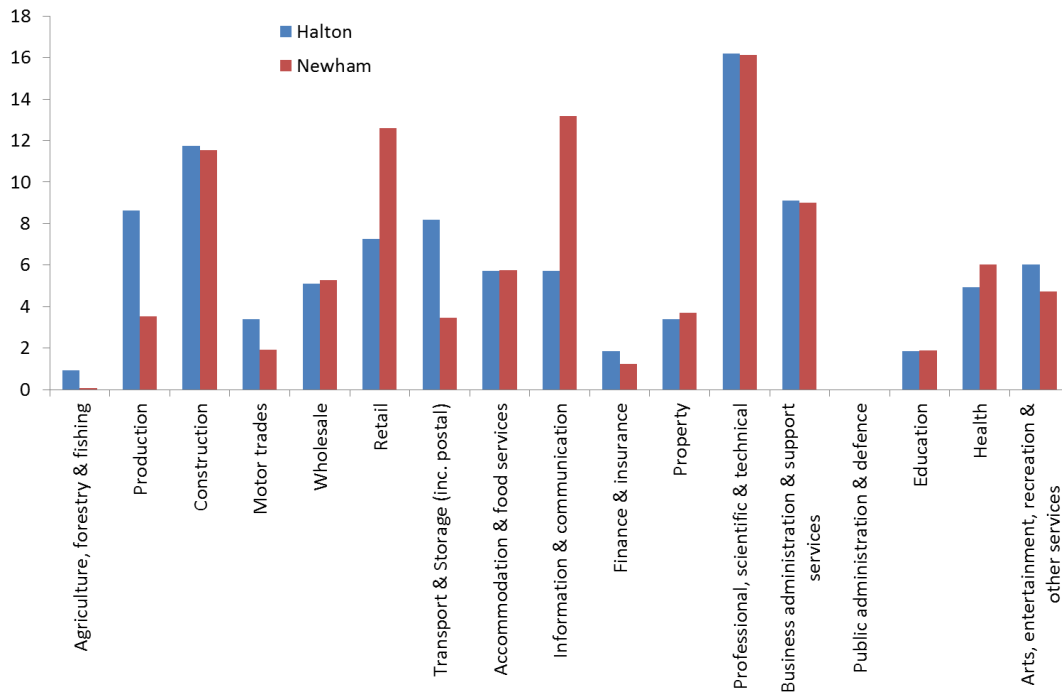

- Last 5 years Newham has seen an 8% growth in population. Halton has seen a 1% increase
- Newham is currently ranked the 23rd most deprived Local Authority nationally. Halton is ranked 27th.

% of properties by Council Tax Band (2015)

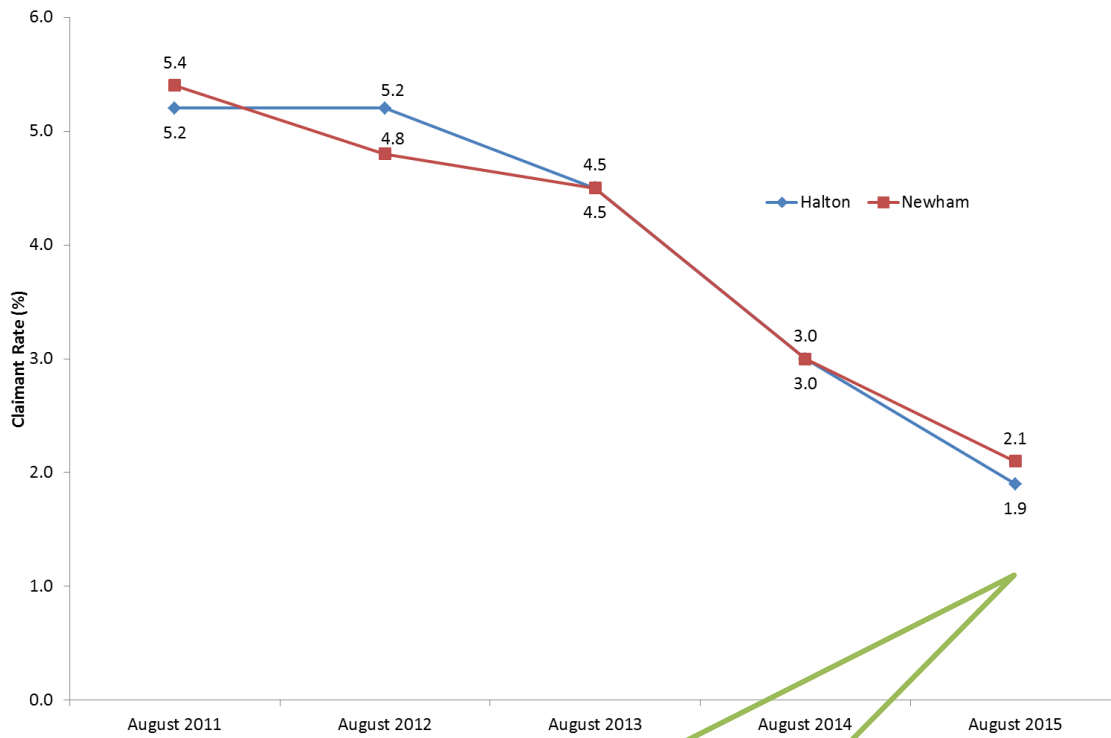

Halton has almost 10 times the proportion of properties in Council Tax Band A than Newham. These properties are considered to be the most affordable.

% of businesses by type (2015)

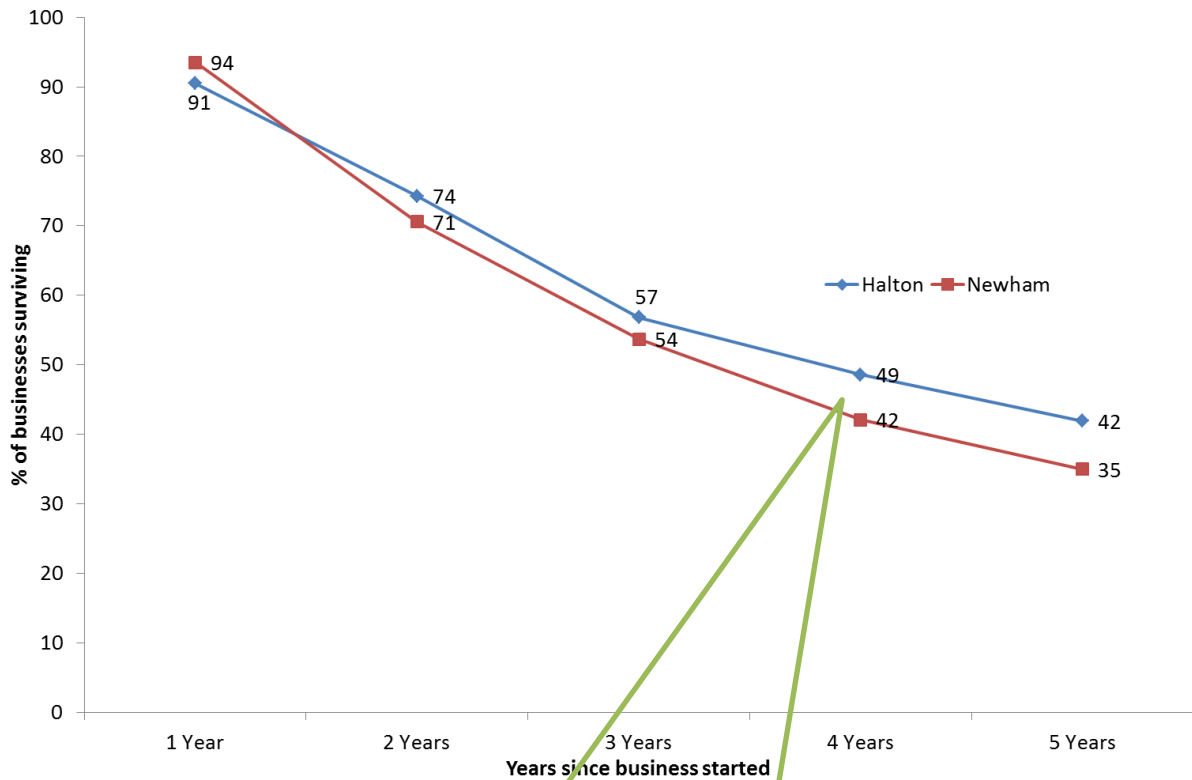

Job Seekers Allowance (unemployment rate)

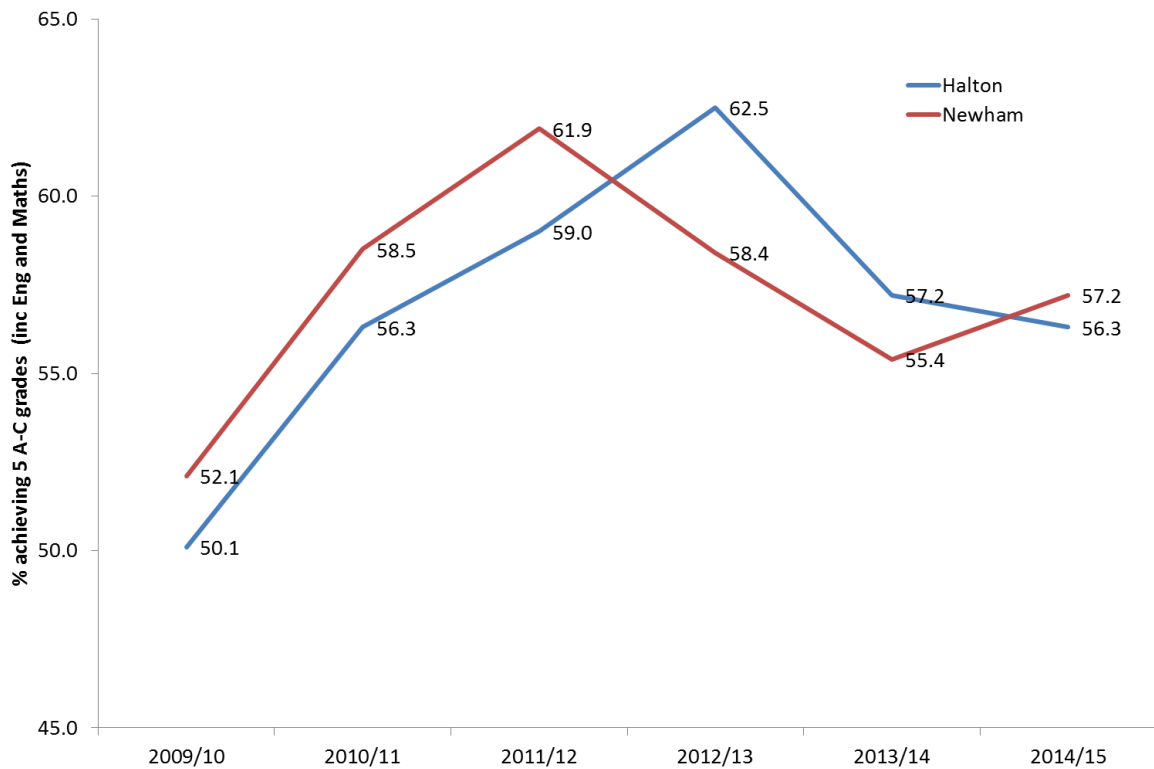

The unemployment rate has more than halved in both Halton and Newham over the past 4 years.

Business Survival Rates (business start-ups in 2009)

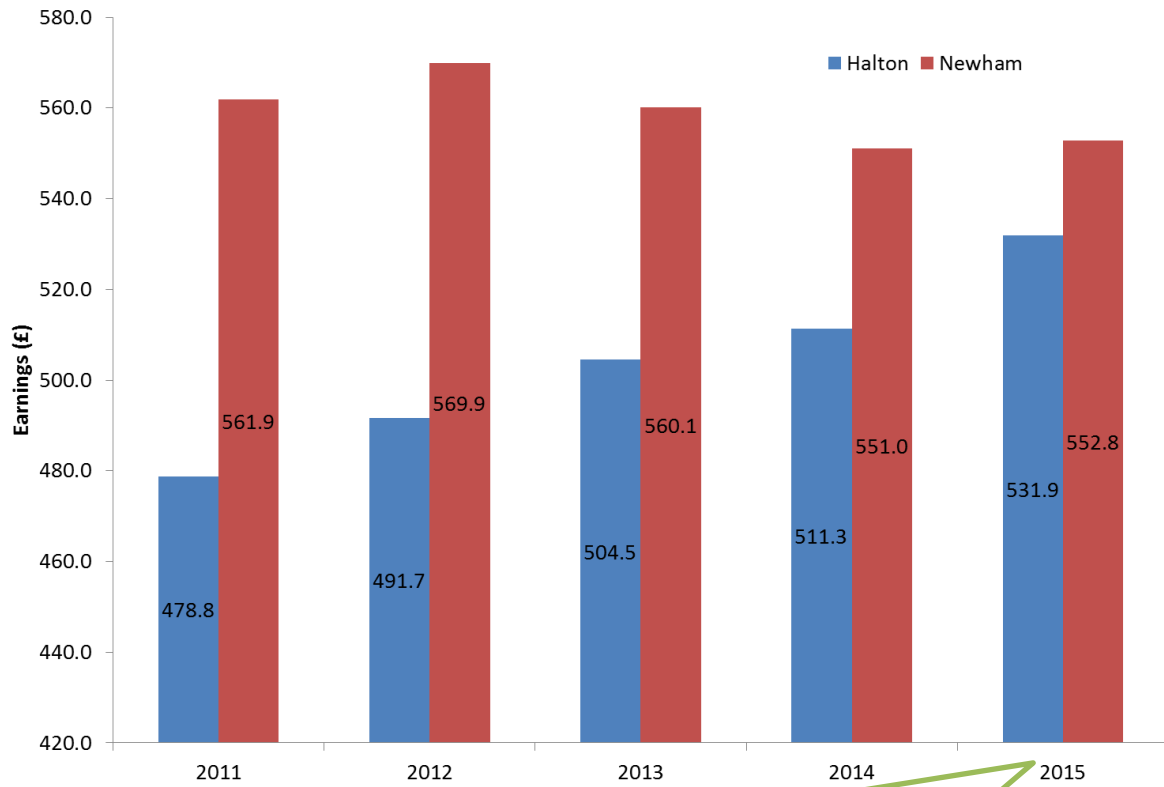

Although Year 1 Survival Rates are better in Newham than Halton, all subsequent years see a better rate for Halton.

% achieving 5 A-C grades (inc Eng and Maths)

Average Workplace Earnings (weekly)

The difference in Average Weekly Earnings between Halton and Newham has shrunken considerably – From £83 to £21

% of Adults with No Qualifications

